

Regional Centre for Innovation and Technology Transfer Ltd

- RCITT Ltd is located in Swietokrzyskie Region which consists of:
- 11 710,50 km²
- 1 266 014 inhabitants

REGIONAL CENTRE FOR INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER LTD

The REGIONAL CENTRE FOR INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER LTD was set up in Kielce on December 18th 2001, as a commercial law non-profit company.

The company currently shareholders are:

- ❖ the Swietokrzyskie Provincial Government 81,43%
- ❖ the City of Kielce 17,94%
- ❖ the Kielce University of Technology 0,63%

Our mission

To enhance the competitiveness of manufacturers and companies providing services (including: education and management) through consultancy, training, certification, transfer and promotion of new technologies, scientific and research potential, advertising, access to information and, finally, through matching business partners.

Our public goals

- Stimulating the regional economic activity and innovation
- Supporting of the regional and local initiatives in the modern and innovative forms of investing (renewable energy sources, public-private partnership)

